

Musical Instruments Make Acceptable Xmas Gifts

A gift of a musical instrument to a friend or loved one is in the best of taste. Such a present will be a constant reminder of the thoughtfulness of the giver.

Many are very easily learned, and what gift could you give that boy or girl that would be more appreciated than a Guitar or Mandolin. To one who understands how to play, give a more difficult instrument.

We have all kinds of musical instruments from which to choose—

Violins, 'Cellos, Mandolins, Guitars, Banjos, Cornets, Accordeons, Clarionets, Piccolos, Flutes,

And many others.

Musical Requirements

A selection from the following list will solve that perplexing Christmas question. We offer:

Music Satchels, Music Racks, Instrument Cases, Music Folios, Music Rolls, Music Stands, Opera Scores, Standard Music,

And various other requirements.

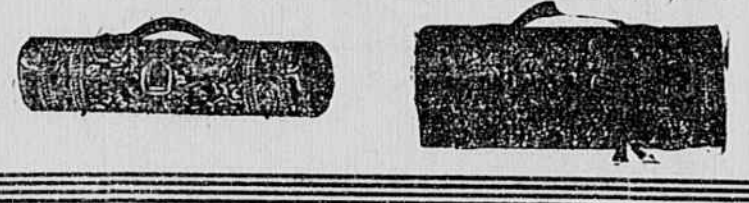

Decide to give something in the musical line this Christmas. Come to our store NOW and make your selection while stocks are complete. We'll gladly lay it aside for Christmas delivery.

If you live out of town, write us about anything in the musical line you may desire, from Strings to Pianos.

News of Petersburg

The Times-Dispatch Bureau,
5 Bollingbrook Street,
Petersburg, Va., December 1.

The time limit for aspirants for the position of Judge of the Hustings Court of Petersburg, to file notice of candidacy, to be voted for in the preferential primary ordered for December 16, expired at noon today. James M. Quicke, Jr., who, from the first, has favored an advisory or preferential primary, was the only one to file notice of candidacy and to comply with the requirements of the Democratic City Committee. It is reported that efforts were made to induce another candidate to enter the contest before the people, but without success. With only one candidate there will, therefore, be no

WOMEN NO LONGER PLEAD FOR BALLOT

and Bakersville. Although it was too late to have official delegates at the convention, several North Carolina women of this city were given the privilege of the floor.

The preliminary report of the committee on credentials, submitted by Mrs. Katherine Dexter McCormick, showed that more than 1,000 delegates were seated in the convention, every State in the Union being represented.

Report Delights Delegates.

Miss Elmer Byrnes, of New York, head of the press bureau, delighted the delegates by telling them that more than $18,000 profit was realized last year by the sale of suffrage literature. "Illinois victory night" was celebrated by the delegates with a huge mass-meeting, at which the speakers, prominent Illinois delegates, did not seem to tire of telling over and over the victory was won in that State. Among the speakers were Miss Catherine Waugh McCullough, Mrs. Ella Stewart, Grace Wilbur Trout, Mrs. Medill McCormick and Elizabeth K. Booth. Mrs. Stewart, in her speech, declared that the new suffrage law in Illinois established a bond between Illinois womanhood and the White House. "By their vote for presidential electors," continued Mrs. Stewart, "they may influence national problems and international policies."

"Illinois women are human. They are not angels, at least not all. They will make some mistakes. Some of them sometimes will be overzealous. Some will be led, and some will be misled. But, at any rate, I dare to prophesy that Illinois towns and cities will soon feel the propulsion of a great moral energy—and we dare to covenant with the women of the world, who are making their fight for freedom, that we will use our power so well that their victory will be hastened. And while other States have coveted and deserved the honor of being the first State east of the Mississippi to give the honor to women, I believe all will agree that there is a fitness in the enfranchisement of the women of the State of Abraham Lincoln, of Frances Willard and of Jane Addams—all of whom claim this great justice for women and this blessing for Illinois."

Must Have Suffrage Plank.

Miss Lucy Burns, vice-chairman of the congressional suffrage committee, gave a resume of the work on the Federal amendment. During her speech, Miss Burns said: "No man will ever dare run for President again unless he has a woman suffrage plank in his platform." Rev. Anna Shaw, D. D., closed the meeting with a report of her year's work as president of the association. Dr. Shaw said the convention would reverse the theory of present marriage laws of the country by making it easy to come into the convention, but hard to get out.

Government ownership of railroads was suggested as a result of woman's suffrage when Miss Marie V. Smith, of New York, reported that difficulty had been found in getting reduced railroad fares for delegates. Dr. Shaw exclaimed: "When we vote, we'll own the railroads."

Suffrage legislation has been introduced or passed in various States this year on an unprecedented scale, according to the report of Mrs. Mary W. Bennett, of New York, corresponding secretary.

Following are the Virginia delegates to the convention:

From Richmond—Mrs. B. B. Valentine, president of the Equal Suffrage League of Virginia; Mrs. G. Harvey Clarke; Mrs. Charles C. Kilduff; Mrs. J. Johnson and Mrs. E. G. Kidd, with Mrs. Charles G. Bisher, Mrs. S. W. Meek and Mrs. Carl Hostrup, as alternates.

From Norfolk—Mrs. C. E. Townsend, Mrs. W. J. Adams, Mrs. C. A. Everhart and Mrs. Anna Savage.

From Lynchburg—Mrs. Henry McDowell.

From Roanoke—Mrs. J. Allen Watts, Mrs. W. Durham, Mrs. Terry and Mrs. Graham.

From Fredericksburg—Miss Jenetta Fitzhugh.

From Staunton—Mrs. W. W. King, Mrs. W. J. Adams, Mrs. George Richardson.

From Alexandria—Mrs. Stephen Putney.

From the University of Virginia—Miss Rose McDonald, acting president.

This afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, Miss Rose McDonald, acting president, held a reception at her home in Calver Street, to meet Mrs. B. B. Valentine and the Virginia delegation.

A REAL NERVE AND BODY BUILDING MEDICINE

When you're sick or rundown, keep away from so-called "tonics." The alcohol and dangerous drugs many of them contain stimulate you for a few minutes after the dose is taken—then leave you worse off than ever. You cannot get well by taking stimulants. You are liable to get worse.

Reckall Olive Oil Emulsion is not a stimulant. It is a real nerve and body and blood-building medicine. It puts the system into shape to overcome present and resist future sickness. It does not contain a drop of alcohol nor anything else harmful. But it builds you up, makes you feel better, stronger, livelier—not the first hour—but after a few days, when the strengthening, toning and tissue-building ingredients have had a chance to work through your blood into those muscles and organs that need their vitality-giving help. The four hypophosphites it contains strengthen the nerves, while pure Olive Oil nourishes them.

Reckall Olive Oil Emulsion is an ideal, common-sense invigorator and up-builder. There is direct benefit to you in every one of its ingredients. Those who are weak and rundown, and you who are apparently well now, but are liable to suffer from colds, cold weather ailments, use Reckall Olive Oil Emulsion to get and keep well and strong. For the tired-out, run-down, nervous, emaciated or debilitated, the invigorating, growing children, aged people, it is a sensible aid to renewed strength, better spirits, glowing health.

Reckall Olive Oil Emulsion—king of the celebrated Teal Remedies—is for freedom from sickness of you and your family. Pleasant-tasting—unlike the cod liver oil preparations—you'll be enthusiastic about it as we are when you have noted its strengthening, invigorating, building up, and venting effects. If it does not help you, your money will be given back to you without argument. Sold in community only at our store—The Reckall Drug Store in the United States, Canada and Great Britain. Polk Miller Drug Co., 334 East Main Street, Richmond, Va.

NO MEETING LAST NIGHT

Registration Committee Will Mail Letters to-Morrow Night.

Deputy Treasurer J. W. Bronaugh reported to the registration committee of the South Richmond and Chesterfield taxpayers that the meeting scheduled for last night was postponed until to-morrow night at 8 o'clock, in the office of Clerk Walter E. DuVal, of Hustings Court, Part II.

The books will then be in shape, with the names of all the delinquent taxpayers. To those people who had sent letters urging them to pay their taxes before December 9 in order to vote in the spring primary.

A copy of the circular to be sent to the taxpayers of the Southside was prepared yesterday afternoon by Bailey P. Shifflet, secretary of the South Richmond Democratic Club. A supply of 1,000 copies was ordered to be printed, and will be mailed to-morrow night.

The text of the letter is as follows: "We trust you will pardon us for calling your attention to the fact that in order to vote in the coming election you must pay your taxes before December 9, 1913. On account of the fact that very important elections will be held during the coming year, including the election of two members of the Administrative Board, five members of the City Council and three members of the Board of Aldermen; and in view of the importance of these elections, we respectfully urge you to see that your taxes are paid before the above date, and that your friends and neighbors do likewise."

Small Fire Closes Company.

A small fire which started in a clothes closet yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock called Engine Company No. 13 and Truck Company No. 5 to the house of Wyatt Jones, colored, of 12 West Nineteenth Street. Little damage was done, the blaze being quickly extinguished. Jones told the firemen that he had $5 in a pair of trousers which were destroyed.

The case of D. B. White's administrators is set for to-day. To-morrow the suit of W. H. Hunt against the Virginia Railway and Power Company comes up, and Thursday will be heard R. L. Jones's administrators against the city of Richmond.

Personal and General.

Miss Alma Durham, who has been visiting Miss Aline Redford, on Porter Street, has returned to her home in Clifton Forge.

Charles, the 14th son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Latham, who recently underwent an operation at the Memorial Hospital, is improving very rapidly, and will be at his home in a few days.

A call is expected to be extended Sunday to a pastor to fill the pulpit of Stockton Street Baptist Church, which was recently made vacant by the resignation of Rev. W. McElroy. A committee is working on the matter and several names are being considered.

A rehearsal was held last night in the home of Professor Ritchie Bacon by members of the Madison-Bacon Minstrel Troupe. A benefit performance will be given Friday night in the Cary School. A full-dress rehearsal will be held Thursday night.

WILL OPERATE MANGANESE COMPANY.

Messrs. Hume and Davis to Take Charge Under New Plan.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Lynchburg, Va., December 1.—Arthur C. Hume, of New York, and Arthur H. Davis, of Petersburg, who were named receivers of the Piedmont Manganese Corporation in the United States Circuit Court at Richmond Saturday by Judge Waddell, took charge of the property to-day, and will operate it under the direction of the court until December 15, when a motion will be made for the appointment of permanent receivers.

The property lies six miles east of Lynchburg, and was bought two years ago by New York and London interests. The owner, R. W. Myers, of this city, selling for $200,000, and the mine, it is said, are just now at the point that they can be developed profitably.

Since the property was taken over the syndicate has built a railroad two miles long to the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway, which, with other modern mining equipment, has been installed at a cost of $250,000, and the mine, it is said, are just now at the point that they can be developed profitably.

Mr. Myers, with his attorney, S. V. Kemp, went to Philadelphia to-night to confer with the officers of the company, and he said to-day that it was immaterial to him whether he was paid his bond, or whether the property reverts to him in the future, which, he says, will be the case if he fails to get the payment of its bonds held by Mr. Myers.

Up to this time the corporation is not in default in the payment of its bonds held by Mr. Myers.

FREIGHT WRECK NEAR DUFFIELD.

Traffic Tied Up by Fall of Drawhead, Hurting Nine Cars From Track.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Bristol, Va., December 1.—Traffic was tied up on the Virginia and Southwestern Railway from 8 o'clock this morning until 5 o'clock to-night, due to a freight wreck near Duffield, Va.

A drawhead fell upon the rail, and nine cars were hurled from the track and turned over. The track was torn up and coal piled in heaps over the roadbed.
